

I value obtaining Internet service from an independent ISP, and think BellSouth's request would badly affect consumers with regards to available choice of Internet Service